

Canadian Council on Animal Care
Conseil canadien de protection des animaux

Good Animal Practice in Science
Bonnes pratiques animales en science

CCAC NATIONAL WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth
900 René-Lévesque Blvd. W.
Montréal, Québec
November 1, 2007

7:30 - 8:30

Registration

8:30 - 8:40

Welcome

Morning Session – Duluth Room

8:40 - 9:25

Minimizing pain and distress

Paul Flecknell, University of Newcastle

9:25 - 10:10

Critical analysis of refinement methods

Coenraad Hendriksen, Netherlands Vaccine Institute and Netherlands Centre for Alternatives to Animal Use

10:10 - 10:30

Break

10:30 - 11:00

CCAC adopted guidelines on: euthanasia

Gilly Griffin, Canadian Council on Animal Care

11:00 - 11:30

CO₂ euthanasia

Lee Niel, University of Toronto

11:30 - 12:00

Effects of euthanasia on research

Badru Moloo, University Health Network, Toronto
Ronald Charbonneau, Centre de recherche du CHUL, Université Laval

12:00 - 13:00

LUNCH – Hochelaga Room 4

Afternoon Session – Duluth Room

*A concurrent session on the same topics will take place in French
(see French program for speakers)*

13:00 - 13:10

Update from Animal Care Committee Coordinators

Rhain Louis, University of Toronto

13:10 - 13:25

Assessment Program Update

Michael Baar, Canadian Council on Animal Care

13:25 - 14:25

Examples of Veterinary Program structures

Nora Lewis and Richard Hodges, University of Manitoba
Badru Moloo, University Health Network, Toronto
Simon Authier, LAB Research Inc.

14:25 - 14:55

Questions and discussion on structure of veterinary programs

14:55 - 15:15

Break

15:15 - 16:15

Examples of post-approval monitoring programs

Geraldine Kent, University of Western Ontario
Dominique Walker, McGill University
Stephanie Alleyn, Merck Frosst

16:15 - 16:45

Questions and discussion on post-approval monitoring

16:45 - 17:00

Concluding remarks

October 25, 2007

To register, visit the CCAC website at www.ccac.ca or contact us at ccac@ccac.ca